

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

DIED BY HIS OWN HAND.

Ex-Governor Stevenson, of Idaho, Suicides at Paraiso Springs.

FRENZIED WITH PAIN.

He Takes an Enormous Dose of Tincture of Opium.

Brief Sketch of the Career of Idaho's Territorial Executive—He Was Always a Prominent Man of Affairs—Boise in Mourning—The Body to Be Embalmed and Shipped to the Capital.

San Luis Obispo, July 7.—Ex-Governor Stevenson, of Idaho, committed suicide yesterday at Paraiso Springs, a health resort near here. Ex-Governor

E. A. STEVENSON.

Stevenson arrived at Paraiso Springs on June 5. He was afflicted with sciatica and was in a helpless condition. His health had improved somewhat and he was able to walk a little. It is supposed that during the night the pain returned and in desperation he took a large dose of laudanum. He was found unconscious in his room and all efforts to revive him failed.

From Boise.

[Special to The Herald.]

Boise, Idaho, July 7.—News has been received that Ex-Governor E. A. Stevenson died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at Paraiso Springs, Cal. His body will be embalmed and sent to Boise. He went to Paraiso Springs six weeks ago suffering from sciatica contracted in Washington last winter as a result of grip. The deceased was born at Lowell, N. Y., in 1825, and went to California in 1848. He held several prominent positions there and was twice elected to the legislature. He came to Idaho in 1893 and settled at Placerville, engaging in mining. He was elected to the territorial council in 1896 and served in several legislatures, being speaker of the eighth session. In 1895 he was appointed by President Cleveland governor of Idaho territory, serving a full term. He was the Democratic candidate for governor in 1904. He was a prominent Mason and served as grand master of the Grand lodge for four years. The flag on the capitol building is half masted in his honor. A widow and son survive him.

REMARKABLE, IF TRUE.

New Brand of Lightning Unchecked in Butte.

[Special to The Herald.]

Butte, Mont., July 7.—During a thunder storm today, lightning struck the residence of Fred C. Anderson and a ball of fire like a cannon ball entered the roof and passed back and forth through every room in the house going through partitions like a ball of fire and for only two minutes it grazed about the house making eleven large holes in walls and ceilings, melting picture frames and other metal in the rooms and finally escaping along the water pipes and without setting fire to anything. There arrived at 2:30 p. m. today and took possession of the railroad property. This was the first word from Governor McCordie had received

GETTING SERIOUS.

The Elkhorn Strike Reaching the Riot Boundary.

Charleston, W. Va., July 7.—Governor McCordie stated tonight that he would try and induce the operators in the Elkhorn and Bluefield region to make an honest effort to resume work tomorrow, and if they say they cannot he will at once order the troops out to protect all men who want to work. The governor says he is confident the troops will have to be ordered out tomorrow. However, a telegram received at the state house from K. Lawrence, the local leader in that section, states that he had ordered all strikers to cease carrying guns, as per order of the governor, except two or three, who will act as his body guard, as he says his life has been threatened by some of the guards employed by the companies. The governor says he was glad to hear of the decision of the strikers to lay down their arms. He said that no one would be allowed to carry a gun on the North fork of the Norfolk & Western was derailed last night by someone throwing a switch, but that no one was hurt.

The dispatch states that the men are all quiet today. The governor said this morning he had been advised that United States Marshal Garden and eight deputies arrived at Elkhorn today and took possession of the railroad property. This was the first word from Governor McCordie had received

THE REBELS ARE CAPTURED.

They Are English and the Leader Is a Correspondent.

LATEST FROM ARMENIA.

Stories of Rapine, Robbery and Outrage Continue.

The Latest Victims of the Turk Treated in a Particularly Vicious Manner—The Revolutionary Party at a Standstill Because of the Capture of Williams—Persecution Goes Steadily On.

Van, Armenia, May 30.—(From the correspondent of the Associated Press in Armenia.)—The advance guard of the revolutionary party which, as announced a week ago, was betrayed to the Turkish government by the Venetians of Tbilisskian on the night of Sunday, May 20, is now in prison in the city of Van. Only one member of the party escaped, and he was only saved through the courage of Dave Emmons, a marshal, who caught and carried him to shelter. No farther news is in evidence at the general office. The thermometer for the last forty-eight hours has never been below 88, even at midnight, and has reached as high as 100. A hard rain is now falling.

EL RENO CAPTURED.

Bill Cook's Paradise Damaged by a Sandstorm.

El Reno, O. T., July 7.—After three days of terrific heat, a wind and sand storm of destructive power visited El Reno tonight, at 5:30, wrecking several houses and injuring several people. The North Methodist African church is a total wreck. The residence of Fred Hult and M. M. Wilson are down away. The stables and sheds of the Texas livery stable were blown into the yard next adjoining, and were wrecked. Outbuildings were blown down, and many roofs and signs carried away. During the storm it was dark as night, and people ran into each other in their flight through the streets.

Mrs. J. W. Brewer was blown quite a distance down the street, and was only saved through the courage of Dave Emmons, a marshal, who caught and carried her to shelter. No farther news is in evidence at the general office. The thermometer for the last forty-eight hours has never been below 88, even at midnight, and has reached as high as 100. A hard rain is now falling.

TEACHERS IN FORCE.

Nearly 12,000 Pedagogues Will Meet in Denver.

Denver, July 7.—A conservative estimate places the number of delegates to the National Educational convention who have arrived in Denver for the opening of the convention at 11,000. The convention will be held at the general office. The thermometer for the last forty-eight hours has never been below 88, even at midnight, and has reached as high as 100. A hard rain is now falling.

WILL CASE SETTLED.

The Healy Heirs Compromise on a Satisfactory Basis.

San Francisco, July 7.—The Joshua Healy will case has been compromised for $50,000. The case was heard by the court. The decision was in favor of the Healy heirs. The case was settled on a satisfactory basis.

INCREASED SHIPPING.

Tacoma, Wash., July 7.—The Northern Pacific Steamship company has secured the big freight steamer Eskdale to add to its fleet. The ship is a 4,000-ton vessel. It will be used for the Pacific coast route. The company has also secured the big freight steamer Eskdale to add to its fleet. The ship is a 4,000-ton vessel. It will be used for the Pacific coast route.

DAN IN TACOMA.

Tacoma, Wash., July 7.—Secretary of War Lamont, accompanied by his party consisting of Mrs. Lamont, the Misses Lamont, General Otis, Quartermaster General Racheider, Adjutant General Wilson, Major General Dyer, and others, arrived in Tacoma today. They will stay at the Hotel Grand Pacific. The party is on its way to the Pacific coast.

PITY THE POOR.

A PRACTICAL DISPENSATION IN THEIR FAVOR.

The Roman Pontiff Absolves Catholics from the Observance of Fast Days.

New York, July 7.—Rev. Father Ducey is authority for the statement that the Pope has promulgated a decree abolishing poor people and working people from the observance of all days of abstinence in the year except Fridays, even during Lent. A rumor that such a decree was in existence has been in circulation for some time, and Father Ducey says the document will be forwarded to the bishops of the United States, and has been promulgated in the west. Speaking of the decree Father Ducey said:

"Many of the ecclesiastics in this country have felt for years that the burden of denial placed on the copious and the struggling and working people was more than a hardship, almost martyrdom. I have not seen the official document sent to the bishops of the United States, but this information came to me about two months ago, from a most trustworthy Roman Catholic correspondent. It has seemed to me for years that legislation in favor of God's laboring poor was most necessary. What a hardship to ask of men and women whose life is always meagre, doubtful, and that are certainly practicing a denial that robs them of their strength and unites them for the proper discharge of their duties and labor, when the comfortable, the well-to-do and the rich and luxurious are feasting sumptuously every day, and find fault as I have known them to do, with the hardships of the holy season of Lent."

Father Lovell, of the archbishop's residence, says that the rumor is absurd, and was manufactured in New York.

ENGLISH CABINET APPOINTMENTS.

London, July 7.—Sir Charles Pearson has been appointed lord advocate for Scotland, and Mr. A. G. Murray solicitor general for Scotland under the new ministry. Both the gentlemen had the same positions in the last Salisbury ministry.

DEATH RODE IN THE WINDS.

Lake Michigan Is Swept by a Terrific Storm.

LIFE SAVERS KEPT BUSY.

Chicago Experiences the Worst Storm in Her History.

Illinois, Wisconsin and the Southern States Visited by a Hurricane—Disasters Reported from Many Points—Loss of Life Probably More Than Estimated—A Day of Suffocating Heat Followed by Cyclones and Electrical Disturbances—Fatalities in Georgia.

Chicago, July 7.—One of the most furious wind and rain storms known in this vicinity for years passed over the city about 6 o'clock this evening, coming from the northwest. The day had been intensely hot and there were many people out on the lake in sail boats, and as the storm came very suddenly it is feared that several lives have been lost. The different life-saving crews have been very busy all the evening rescuing victims of capsized boats. People clinging to planks, and up to 10 p. m. have brought in the occupants of three capsized boats, all in a very exhausted condition. No trace of any others have been found up to this hour and it is hoped that no more are out. The police at Cottage Grove avenue station on South Side claim they distinctly saw a sailboat with three occupants disappear during the height of the gale and nothing was seen of it again during daylight. The life savers from South Side cruised around that locality for some time, but found no evidence of a wreck. It is probable that more missing will be reported from various squares at a later hour. Up to within twenty minutes of the descent of the storm upon the city the sky had been clear and the sun shining brightly. Suddenly heavy black clouds began to gather in the northwest, and a few minutes later a terrible gale of wind accompanied by a perfect flood of rain and furious lightning, was sweeping over the city. Shade trees were broken off close to the ground, awnings and signs were torn away and much more minor damage was done in the city. The wind subsided after about half an hour, but a furious rain continued for nearly two hours. The parks had been crowded all day with people seeking relief from the atmosphere, and when the storm began there was stampede along the streets, and a few minutes later the streets were filled with people seeking shelter in the various elevated and cable cars.

The surface lines were all equipped with open cars, and as a result the occupants of every train were exposed to a block and most of them, after getting a thorough soaking, deserted the cars and sought the shelter of the streets. The streets were crowded with people seeking shelter in the various elevated and cable cars.

Several houses in the outlying districts were struck by lightning and wrecked. Two small residences were wholly destroyed. Luckily no one was injured. A sign on the corner of Panhandle tracks at Ada street was blown over and the tower man, August Boedlow was fatally injured. At 10 p. m. the police and life savers claim that the fatalities were not expected half a dozen. Charles Klein, John Ross and Charles L. Shook are believed to have been drowned. They were blown out into the lake in a row boat and no trace has been found. The yawl boat belonging to the yacht Hattie B. has been picked up off Twenty-sixth street but it is thought the yacht has weathered the gale and made some other port. The small craft which were blown into the lake report exciting experiences. There were several narrow escapes from drowning. The telephone and telegraph service was completely demoralized. It was 10 o'clock tonight before any communication could be had with Milwaukee.

Later reports from the evening show that the losses in the down town districts alone will aggregate a large sum. The big department store of Rothschild & Co. occupying nearly three-quarters of a square on State street suffered most. The plate glass windows on the State street side were nearly all blown in. The stock was badly damaged by the rain. Several passengers on the street cars were painfully injured by falling glass.

At midnight it is thought that all out on the lake are accounted for. The report of the drowning of a man off Cottage Grove is believed without foundation. A small boat containing three men came near the Farragut boat house soon after the police were notified of the missing men.

John Ross, capitalized, outer breakwater.

Three unknown persons, supposed to have been drowned by capsizing of a small unknown yacht off Second street.

STORM IS GENERAL.

Chicago, July 7.—Dispatches from many points in the central and northern portions of Illinois and southern Wisconsin tell of a furious and sudden storm this afternoon and evening, though nowhere was the damage so much as in Chicago.

At Savannah, Ill. the storm almost amounted to a cyclone.

At Peoria the mercury stood at 93 nearly all day until 4 o'clock when the storm suddenly commenced.

Several buildings were unroofed, one three story frame block completely destroyed and much damage done to trees, awnings and windows. Many boats parties were on the lake, but so far as known tonight all succeeded in reaching places of safety. At Delavan, Wis. the roof of the Mettewee hotel was blown off and great trees were broken like pipestems. There was a deluge of rain and great hail stones broke windows and leveled fields of grain.

At Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, July 7.—Severe storm

INTERSTATE DRILL CLOSES.

Prize Winners in the St. Louis Citizen Soldiers' Contest.

WERE MANY SURPRISES.

Almost Perfect Drills Put Up by Militiamen.

The Branch Guards of St. Louis Take Down the First Prize—The Disobedient Neely Zouaves of Memphis, Winners in the Contest—Wind-Up of the Greatest of All Militia Contests—Scores and Percentages.

St. Louis, July 7.—Between 25,000 and 40,000 people were at Camp Hancock to see the wind-up of the interstate drill and encampment. The programme today consisted mostly of sacred concerts by the bands in camp. In the afternoon the last contest of the encampment took place. It was the individual drill for four prizes, aggregating in value $175. When the drill commenced twenty-five, representing each of the companies in camp, were in line, but soon were dropped out to but four. The competition between them was close, the drill being very rigid. The first man to be caught was Corporal Albert of the National Rifles, of Washington; then Sergeant Charles Durfee, of the Walsh Zouaves, of St. Louis; fell out, followed by Private W. F. Thompson, of the Branch Guards of St. Louis and the Belknap Rifles of San Antonio, Texas, which won the first and second prizes respectively. One of the judges said the latter company lost points on its inspection because of the condition of its rifles, while its drill was nearly equal to that of the Branch Guards. The first prize of $50, with a $1,000 cup, which went to a home company, was declared by one of the judges to be entirely out of proportion to the other prizes in this class. The medal offered for the captain making the best personal score during the drill, was awarded to Captain Sinclair, commanding the Branch Guards. The Belknap Rifles of Kansas City, won the first prize in the maiden infantry class, with the National Rifles, of Washington, a close second. In the artillery class, which was the most interesting, the Indiana company, which carried off the two first prizes, with the Dallas Battery but a few points behind for third prize. There was most surprise in the zouave class, where three prizes were offered and four companies competing. There was considerable disappointment that the Chicago Zouaves, which had got a mention. This command has justly been called the first zouave company in the country, because of its having won more than twenty first prizes during the last two years. Analysis of its score card showed where it failed to come up to the standard of the other companies. In the point of accuracy it was perfect, while its mark for speed was as high, if not higher, than in the case of its competitors in this drill. It, however, came far below the other companies in the execution of its movements made and in the quickness of its execution, while its mark for work that was distinctly zouave was considerably lower than that received by the winners of the National Rifles of Memphis, who were the winners of the first prize, with the Walshes, of St. Louis second, and the Hales, of Kansas City, third. The Chicago Zouaves, who have been out of commission for the past two years, should win second prize. Not a member of the company had been court-martialed for insubordination, which was a record. Both weeks ago, when Captain Heyman called the men together and, through the hardest kind of work, brought them up to their old point of making the first prize.

Several of the companies left camp this evening immediately after dress parade and the others will take their departure early tomorrow morning.

Following is the list of prize winners, with percentages:
